Praise Him ye drillers, give hearty thanks;
Praise Him for overflowing tanks.

With Hearst backing Clunie for the Senate and opposing White, M. F. Tarpey aspiring on his own hook, and Pond, Coleman and English battling for the governorship, while Father Buckley is not here to keep them all in order, says the San Francisco Post there is going to be a beautiful scrimmage in the Democratic hunting grounds shortly.

People who are in a rush to have their job printing done at this office must take their chances with the rest and await their turn. The job department has been rushed to death during the past 30 days and with extra men working hard to catch up the jam still continues. We expect to work clear of it in a couple of weeks if patrons don't come in every half hour to see how their work is getting along.

Good Call.

"Say Cap, are you going to the post office," said a Carson man yesterday to a grocer who was in a hurry. "Just take this letter will you." The grocer glanced at the printed address on the letter and it was directed to a leading grocery house in Sacramento.
The man was sending an order for groceries and he had asked a Carson grocer to mail the letter.

A SAGEBRUSH MURDERED.—C. M. Foster, the man who was killed near Leadville, Col., on the 5th, was an old resident of Virginia City and father of Ned Foster, manager of the Bella Union. He was shot and killed by a lumberman named Elmer Harris in a dispute over $15. The murderer is still at large.

TO-DAY'S RACE.—Some weeks ago Dobbins ran Gibson at Hawthorne for $200 a side and Dobbins lost. He has been dissatisfied with the result and today will run Gibson again for $500 a side. It will be run about 3 o'clock this afternoon at the race track and no admission charged.

APPRECIATIVE MONCOLIARS.

They Outdue the Whites for Long Memories.

Yesterday the members of the Warren engine company went around the city to sell tickets for ball. They called on the leading property owners and some whose buildings they had saved from fire were the hardest to sell a ticket to.

One of the members said: "One man whose house I worked on, at the mercury twenty-four below zero, refused to buy a fifty cent ticket, and accompanied his refusal with a contemptuous remark. His fire cost me six dollars, and there is hardly a fire that does not cost members money for ruined clothes and sometimes ruined health. The men who have received the most are the soonest to forget our thankless work. But Chinaman are different. We went down to Quong Hlag and told him we wanted to sell some tickets to help keep up our fire company. He said we had worked hard in chinatown fires and we would sell our tickets.
In about an hour he came up with a $20 dollar bill and called for forty tickets.
It surprises me to see chinamen more appreciative than the leading white citizens, but it is so.
No, I will not tell you the names, you would hardly believe it if I did."

BAD RESULTS OF PRAYER.—A preacher out in Elko last Sunday attempted to show the people the power of prayer. He said the people of Missouri prayed for the grasshoppers to go away, and the next day they all rose into the air and flew into the sea.

Now, this is a mistake. The writer was in Nebraska when the Missourians began to pray and the grasshoppers merely migrated from Missouri to Nebraska and cleaned up every green thing in the State.
It struck us at the time that the proceedings were not quite right. It did not seem to us that the Lord was wise to run the hoppers off corn worth 25 cents a bushel, and close to the railroad and cut up corn worth 50 cents and miles from a railroad. It struck us that the Lord ought to consider a request such as made by the prayer people of Missouri before acting hastily on it.

WITH A MORAL.—Mary had a little lamb with fleece as white as snow; it ran away one summer day, where lambs should never go. Then Mary sat her down and tears streamed from her eyes; she never found that lamb—because she didn't advertise. Now, Mary had a brother Jim, who kept a country store; he sat him down and smoked his pipe, and watched the open door. And as the people passed along but did not stop to buy, Jim still sat down and blinked his sleepy, sleepy eyes. And so the sheriff closed him out, but still he lingered near, and Mary came to drop with him a sympathetic tear. "How is it, sister, that the other merchants here sell all their goods and pay their bills and thrive from year to year?" Remembering well her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "Other merchants get there quick, you see they advertise.—Exchange.

STEWART'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—Yesterday the Secretary of the Silver Convention received an acknowledgment from Senator Stewart in response to the dispatch sent him by the Convention It as follows.
WASHINGTON, June 7, 1890.
A. C. PRATT, Esq., Sec. & etc. Carson, Nevada.

Dear Sir:
Your dispatch of the 29th ult. was duly received. I am glad that the people of Nevada feel the great importance of the silver fight in which we are engaged. The gold men have been very active during the last month and have brought every influence possible to bear to affect Members of Congress. I assure you that the delegates from Nevada are doing all they possibly can to secure the results the people desire. Whether their efforts will be crowned with success remains to be seen. If we fail to get legislation this session the cause is not necessarily lost. The people are now aroused and the fight will go on. We are very anxious, however, to take a step forward before the session expires. The people of our State need relief and need it immediately.
Yours truly,
WM. M. STEWART.

DENTIST.—J. E. Calhoun, a dentist who comes to this city with a reputation in advance of him has rented the rooms in the Ormsby House block formerly occupied by Judge Sabin. He will be open for business on Monday and those who secure his services can be assured of having a superior class of work.

A queer cuss, who called himself "Marcus," advertised as follows in the London Times: "I require to borrow, sum of £50 for an indefinite period. No security can be offered. Any lady or gentleman granting this favor will greatly oblige, and at the same time greatly surprise the advertiser. Address, etc."

LOST.—Since June 3rd, a white horse, has had a blister on his right shoulder which is now a small bump, the skin being black; two cuts about six inches long on the inside of the forelegs near the breast and a little stiff in gait. Having owned him but a short time, these are the only brands by which I can identify him, he is supposed to have been lost. Whoever will bring him to Mr. Frank Langevin will receive $5. j10
